PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY HENRY M. WHITNEY.

THE PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser. HAWAIIAN LEGISLATURE, House of Representatives.

NINETY-THIRD DAY—AUGUST 19.

Mr. Harris introduced a Joint Resolution for the relief of Ira Richardson, providing that the Judges of the Supreme Court be appointed a Commission to ascertain whether any sum of money should be paid I. R. for the Nauana bridge; and if they find any due, authorizing the Minister of the Interior to pay it out of the road tax money for the District of Kona, Oahu. After a long and boisterous debate, passed 14 to 11.

Mr. Harris moved to take from the table the bill regulating the salaries of the Chief Justice. The motion was opposed by Messrs. Knudsen, Kaauka, Kauai, and Waiau; favored by Messrs. Harris, Kahawai, and Baranewa; but lost 13 to 9.

By motion of Mr. Knudsen, the Clerk was instructed to report to the Nobles the action of the House on the Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Kipi introduced a resolution to announce to the Nobles the readings of the House for final adjournment on Friday next, August 22.

A message was received from the Nobles, that they had concurred in the amendments of the House to the liquor license bill. Adjourned.

NINETY-FOURTH DAY—AUGUST 20.

The Speaker announced a message from the Nobles, that they had passed the bill authorizing the Minister of Finance to negotiate a loan for $100,000 for the purpose of canceling the Government debt about maturing. Adjourned.

NINETY-FIFTH DAY—AUGUST 21.

Mr. Webster, of the Conference Committee, on the Joint Resolution for the appointment of a Commission to revise the Constitution, reported, recommending the passage of the same as amended by them. The Committee of the Whole, the Resolution was adopted. Dr. Judd, Webster, Harris, Rhodes, Wadsworth, Knudsen, Kahawai, Baranewa, and Kaauka; opposed by Messrs. Dowsett, Nauana and Kaauka; and tabled, 15 to 9.

The Speaker announced a message from the Nobles, that they had concurred in all the final amendments of the House to the Appropriation Bill; also that they had appointed a Committee to inform His Majesty of the same. Concurred in, and a similar Committee appointed on the part of the House. Adjourned.

NINETY-SIXTH DAY—AUGUST 22.

No business—Adjourned.

NINETY-SEVENTH DAY—AUGUST 23.

Mr. Knudsen, of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, relating to the Department of Foreign Affairs, being unable to report on them on account of their voluminousness, and the short time that had elapsed since their reception.

Mr. Kipi, of the Committee on Accounts, reported that the total expenses of the House of Representatives this session had been $10,000.

Mr. Rhodes, of the Committee appointed to inform His Majesty of the acts of the Legislature for final adjournment, reported that the Legislature would be prorogued at 12 M., to day.

Mr. Harris introduced the following resolution, which passed: that the Speaker convey to their Majesties the assurance that the Representatives of the people learn with great sorrow the illness of H. R. H. the Prince of Hawaii, and deeply sympathize with the grief of His Parents, and earnestly pray that His Highness' illness may quickly have a favorable termination.

Mr. Kipi introduced a resolution conveying to the Speaker the thanks of the House for the able and impartial manner in which he had performed the duties of his office. Adopted.

A message was announced from the Nobles, that they had passed the joint Resolution for the relief of Ira Richardson.

The Speaker replied as follows:

GENTLEMEN.—At the close of what has proved to be rather a prolonged session, I have to sincerely thank you for the favorable expression of your opinion upon my performance of the duties as Speaker. In performing those duties, I have endeavored to act with fairness and impartiality, and I have to thank the members of the House for their valuable aid and forbearance which has enabled me to fill the office of Speaker with pleasure to myself, as I would gain hope from the resolution just passed, with satisfaction to the House over which I have had the honor to preside.

After listening to the address of His Majesty, delivered through his Royal Commission. The Representatives returned to their hall and adjourned sine die.

The following are the amendments to the Constitution passed by the Legislature at its present session:

ARTICLES
Of Amendment of the Constitution, proposed and passed pursuant to the 105th Article of the Constitution.

Readings, By the Nobles, Nobles and Representatives of the Hawaiian Islands in Legislative Council assembled.

Article 1. Article 26th is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"The Crown is hereby permanently confirmed to His Majesty King Kamakau IV, and to the heirs of his body, his son, and to their lawful descendants in a direct line, failing whom, the crown shall descend to His Royal Highness Prince Kuhio, and to his heirs, and to their lawful descendants, and their lawful descendants in a direct line, failing whom, the Crown shall descend to Her Royal Highness the Princess Victoria Kaiulani Kaahoolawe, the heirs of her body, lawfully begotten and born, and to their lawful descendants in a direct line, shall be to the senior male child and to the heirs of his body; failing a male child, the succession shall be to the senior female child and to her heirs, and to their lawful descendants in a direct line, failing whom, the crown shall descend to Her Royal Highness the Princess Victoria Kaiulani Kaahoolawe, and to her heirs, and to their lawful descendants in a direct line, failing whom, the crown shall be to the senior male child and to the heirs of his body; failing a male child, the succession shall be to the senior female child and to her heirs, and to their lawful descendants in a direct line, failing whom, the crown shall be the person whom the King and the House of Nobles shall appoint and publicly proclaim during the King's life; but should there be no such person, then the King and the House of Nobles, shall immediately after the occurring of such vacancy, shall cause a meeting of both Houses of the Legislature, and by their joint resolution name a successor to the throne."

Article 2. Article 30th is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"The person of the King is inviolable and sacred; his Ministers are responsible to him; the King belongs to the executive power; and the King is the sole representative of the Legislature; for their validity shall be deemed to be Royal Decree; but their acts may be impeached by Royal Edict; subject to the provision of Article 4th, but their number shall not exceed thirty."

Article 3. Article 72nd is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"The King appoints the members of the House of Nobles, who hold their seats during life (or for such a term of years, not less than ten) as may be prescribed by Royal Edict; subject to the provision of Article 4th, but their number shall not exceed thirty."

Article 4. Article 76th is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"The representation of the people shall be based on the principle of equality, and shall be forever regulated and apportioned according to the population to be ascertained by the official census, to be taken every ten years; and every tenth year thereafter, the number of Representatives shall be fixed by the Legislature, agreeably with this and the other Articles."

Article 5. Article 77th is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"No person shall be eligible for a Representative of the people who is not a native of the Kingdom, or who shall not have been converted of any infidelity, or unless he shall have resided in the Kingdom, who shall have arrived at the full age of twenty-five years, shall know how to read and write, and to sign his name, and shall have resided in the Kingdom for at least one year immediately previous to his election, and who shall own real estate within the kingdom amounting in value at least of two hundred and fifty dollars, or who shall have an annual income of at least two hundred and fifty dollars."

Article 6. Article 83rd is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"The Legislature may, from time to time, establish Circuit
